

30-Day Growth Strategy Planner.

Thirty days of structure, daily focus,
and the discipline to see it through.

WHAT'S INSIDE · 5 SECTIONS · 12 PAGES · FILLABLE WORKBOOK

- 01 Daily Action Planner — 30 days of structured morning + evening focus
- 02 Weekly Review System — Four structured reviews — catch drift before it costs you
- 03 Milestone Tracker — 7 non-negotiable checkpoints across 30 days
- 04 KPI Dashboard — Track only what actually moves the needle
- 05 30-Day Debrief — Learn, diagnose, and reset for Month 2

"I help businesses grow. Otherwise, I don't get involved." — Katarina Raskovic

THE RULES — READ BEFORE DAY ONE

Before You Begin.

This planner works only if you use it every single day. Not most days. Every day.

Most people buy planning tools, fill in the first three pages, and then stop. This is not a criticism — it is a pattern. Life interrupts. Urgency wins over importance. The plan collects dust.

This planner is built differently. Each section takes less than 10 minutes. The weekly reviews take 30. The monthly debrief takes one hour. That is all. The structure is deliberately light so you actually do it. The questions are deliberately hard so it actually means something.

01 SET YOUR GOAL FIRST — BEFORE YOU OPEN DAY 1

The Goal Setup page exists for a reason. A planner without a target is a journal. Define your non-negotiable 30-day outcome before you write a single daily action. Make it specific, make it measurable, and write the number down.

02 COMPLETE EACH DAY IN THE MORNING AND EVENING

Five minutes in the morning to set your daily focus. Five minutes in the evening to score yourself honestly. This two-part rhythm is where most people fail — they do the morning and skip the evening. The evening review is where real growth happens. Do not skip it.

03 DO THE WEEKLY REVIEWS WITHOUT EXCEPTION

Every 7 days there is a structured review. It takes 30 minutes. It is not optional. The weekly review is how you catch small drift before it becomes a large problem. Miss one and you will not know you are off course until it costs you.

04 SCORE YOURSELF RUTHLESSLY — NOT GENEROUSLY

A score of 8 out of 10 when you completed 6 tasks is a comfortable lie. Score what you actually did, not what you intended. The gap between your score and your actual performance is exactly where your revenue is leaking.

05 TELL ONE PERSON YOUR 30-DAY GOAL TODAY

Not tomorrow. Today. Accountability is not weakness — it is leverage. Tell one person your specific, measurable target. Say it out loud. Make it real. Momentum is built in public, not in private.

THE ASSET DISTRICT STANDARD:

"Precision is not optional. Thirty days, built right, changes the trajectory of a business." — Katarina Raskovic

COMPLETE THIS BEFORE DAY 1 — NO EXCEPTIONS

Your 30-Day Goal Setup.

Vague goals produce vague results. Every field below is non-negotiable.

In motorsport, every driver knows exactly what lap time they need before the race starts. Not approximately — exactly. This is not obsession. This is preparation. Your 30-day goal works the same way: write the specific number, the specific outcome, and the specific week-by-week checkpoints. Then you will know, every single morning, whether you are on pace or behind. Everything else in this planner feeds this page.

YOUR PRIMARY 30-DAY GOAL

The one measurable outcome this month is in service of e.g. Close 5 new clients at $2,000 each — $10,000 in new revenue by Day 30

Write your goal here: _____

REVENUE TARGET FOR THIS MONTH ($)

The number you are committing to — write it exactly

THE ONE THING THAT WILL MAKE THIS MONTH A WIN

If nothing else happens, this single outcome justifies the month

THE BIGGEST OBSTACLE YOU EXPECT

Name it now. A named obstacle can be planned for. A hidden one will stop you.

WEEKLY MILESTONES — WHAT EACH WEEK MUST ACHIEVE TO STAY ON PACE

WEEK 1 (Days 1–7): Foundation — first clients, first conversations, first wins

WEEK 2 (Days 8–14): Momentum — pipeline full, proposals out, follow-ups happening

WEEK 3 (Days 15–21): Conversion — turn conversations into commitments

WEEK 4 (Days 22–30): Close out — finish what is open, hit the number

MY COMMITMENT:

I will complete this planner every single day for 30 days. I start today.

Start date: _____ Signed: _____

BUILD THE HABIT — DAYS 1 TO 7

Days 1–7: Foundation Week.

The first week is about building the daily rhythm, not hitting the big number.

The most important thing this week is not results — it is the habit. Show up every morning and complete the evening review.

BLOCK 30 MINUTES — EVERY 7 DAYS — NON-NEGOTIABLE

Weekly Review System.

The weekly review is where you catch drift before it costs you. Do not skip this.

Here is the truth about weekly reviews: most founders avoid them because they are afraid of what they will find. A low score is uncomfortable. Behind on the goal is uncomfortable. That discomfort is the point. A business that you do not review honestly is a business that runs on hope. Use this review every 7 days. The pattern of improvement — week over week — is the most reliable indicator of whether this month will hit its target.

CHECK THESE ON THE EXACT DAY — NO EARLY, NO LATE

Milestone Tracker.

Seven checkpoints. Each one tells you whether you are on pace or behind.

Milestones are not celebrations — they are diagnostics. Each one answers a specific question about your trajectory. If you hit the Day 10 checkpoint, you are on pace. If you miss it, you have 20 days to recover — but only if you act immediately. The checkbox on the left is for the date you complete it, not the date you hope to.

DAY 03 Momentum Check ☐ Three days completed. Morning focus done. Evening review done. Daily score above 6. If your average score is below 5, something in your daily structure is not working. Fix the structure now, not on Day 10.	COMPLETED:
DAY 07 Week 1 Review Complete ☐ First weekly review done. Average daily score noted. Top pattern identified. Your Week 1 average score is the baseline. Every week from here should be higher.	COMPLETED:
DAY 10 First Revenue Check ☐ Revenue generated in first 10 days calculated against your monthly target. Minimum benchmark: 25% of your monthly goal by Day 10. Below that — something structural needs to change.	COMPLETED:
DAY 14 Midpoint — Full Assessment ☐ Halfway through. Full goal review: what is on track, what is behind, what to cut. If you are more than 30% behind your midpoint target, do not try harder. Change the approach.	COMPLETED:
DAY 21 Final Push Begins ☐ Nine days remain. Every action from here is a conversion or a close. Identify your three highest-leverage actions for the final stretch. Do nothing else.	COMPLETED:
DAY 28 Close-Out Sprint ☐ Final two days. Every open thread gets a decision: close, defer, or kill. No new starts. Nothing that cannot be completed by Day 30 gets any attention today.	COMPLETED:
DAY 30 30-Day Debrief ☐ Complete the full debrief. Score the month honestly. Set up Month 2. This is not a celebration. It is a diagnostics session. Celebrate results, not effort.	COMPLETED:

REVIEW EVERY FRIDAY — 15 MINUTES MAXIMUM

KPI Tracking Dashboard.

Measure only what moves the needle. Everything else is noise.

There are two kinds of founders: those who know their numbers and those who guess. The ones who know their numbers grow faster — not because numbers are magic, but because they make decisions based on reality rather than feeling. Review this dashboard every Friday. It takes 15 minutes. It will tell you more about your business than any strategy session.

MONTHLY REVIEW — FOUR QUESTIONS. ANSWER THEM EVERY 30 DAYS.What produced the most revenue this month?

This is what you double down on in Month 2.

What wasted the most time or energy?

This is what you cut, delegate, or automate.

One thing that would compound over 90 days?

Do this consistently. Everything else is secondary.

Non-negotiable #1 priority for next month?

One sentence only. Not a list.
