Premium Brand Positioning Worksheet

Define exactly where you stand, who you serve, and why they choose you.

Premium positioning is not about having the highest price. It is about owning a specific, valuable place in the mind of your ideal client. This worksheet will help you define that position with precision — and translate it into messaging that works.

PART 01 · YOUR IDEAL CLIENT

The more specific, the more powerful

Most founders describe their ideal client in vague terms. Premium brands are built on obsessive specificity. The person you are trying to reach should feel like you wrote your messaging just for them.

CLIENT AVATAR NAME

Give your ideal client a name and a face. Make them real.

e.g. "Sarah — 35, founder of a 3-year-old service business, based in London"

INDUSTRY / NICHE

What space do they operate in?

e.g. Coaching, e-commerce, legal services, architecture

BUSINESS STAGE

Where are they in their journey?

e.g. Year 1–3, scaling past $100k, pre-exit

ANNUAL REVENUE RANGE

Approximate revenue bracket

e.g. $50k–$200k, $200k–$500k, $1M+

TEAM SIZE

How many people do they manage?

e.g. Solo, 2–5, 5–20 employees

THEIR PRIMARY GOAL

What is the single most important thing they are trying to achieve right now?

e.g. "I want to sign 3 premium retainer clients within 90 days"

THEIR BIGGEST FEAR / FRUSTRATION

What keeps them up at night? What have they already tried that failed?

e.g. "I keep attracting low-budget clients who don't respect my time or expertise"

WHAT THEY SECRETLY WANT

Beyond the practical goal — what does success feel like to them?

e.g. "To be seen as an authority. To work less and earn more. To feel proud of what they've built."

PART 02 · YOUR UNIQUE POSITION

Why you and not anyone else

Differentiation is not about being better at the same thing. It is about owning a position no one else can claim. Your background, your method, your perspective — these are your differentiators.

YOUR ORIGIN STORY IN 2-3 SENTENCES

What did you do before? What shaped how you think? What makes your path unusual?

e.g. "I spent 6 years in professional motorsport before consulting. That taught me that precision and preparation are the only things that win. I bring that same standard to every business I work with."

YOUR DIFFERENTIATORS vs. COMPETITORS

GENERIC POSITIONING	PREMIUM POSITIONING
"I help businesses grow"	"I help service founders sign premium retainer clients in 90 days"
"Experienced consultant"	"6 years in motorsport + 5 years building businesses in Dubai"
"Custom solutions"	"A precision system built around your specific business model"
"Results-driven"	"Your first paying client within 30 days or we keep working"

WHAT CAN YOU CLAIM THAT NO ONE ELSE CAN?

Your unique background, experience, or method

e.g. Motorsport discipline & precision applied to business

WHAT DO YOUR BEST CLIENTS SAY ABOUT YOU?

The exact words they use — not what you wish they said

e.g. "She gets to the point and gives you a plan that actually works"

YOUR CORE METHOD OR FRAMEWORK

Do you have a named process or proprietary approach? Give it a name.

e.g. "The Precision Growth Method — Strategy, Structure, Scale"

PART 03 · YOUR POSITIONING STATEMENT

The single sentence that defines your brand

A positioning statement is not your tagline. It is your internal compass — the sentence that guides every piece of content, every offer, and every conversation. Get this right and everything else follows.

THE FORMULA

I help [WHO] who struggle with [PROBLEM] to achieve [SPECIFIC RESULT] through [YOUR METHOD].

EXAMPLE

"I help ambitious founders who are stuck between $50k and $200k to build a scalable, premium business that generates consistent revenue — through strategic positioning, structured systems, and a client acquisition framework that works without paid ads."

YOUR DRAFT POSITIONING STATEMENT

Write your first draft using the formula. Do not overthink it — refine later.

e.g. "I help [your WHO] who [PROBLEM] to achieve [RESULT] through [YOUR METHOD]."

REFINED VERSION

After sitting with it for a day — what is the cleaner, sharper version?

PART 04 · YOUR BRAND VOICE & TONE

How you sound is as important as what you say

Your brand voice is your personality in words. It should be consistent across your website, social media, emails, and conversations. Premium brands have a voice that is immediately recognisable.

CHOOSE YOUR BRAND VOICE ATTRIBUTES

CIRCLE 3 WORDS THAT DESCRIBE YOUR BRAND VOICE:

Strategic	Warm	Direct	Elegant	Bold
Precise	Empowering	Authoritative	Honest	Inspiring
Premium	Grounded	Provocative	Calm	Energetic

MY BRAND SOUNDS LIKE:

Confident but not arrogant. Strategic but human.
e.g. "A trusted advisor who tells you the truth"

MY BRAND NEVER SOUNDS:

What tone to avoid entirely?
e.g. "Desperate, corporate, generic, or preachy"

WRITE A SENTENCE IN YOUR BRAND VOICE

Practice: describe what you do in your brand voice, not in "professional" language.
e.g. "I help founders stop guessing and start building – with a plan that actually holds."

PART 05 · YOUR KEY MESSAGES

What you say, where, and to whom

Premium brands repeat a small set of core messages across every channel. Consistency builds recognition. Recognition builds trust. Trust converts.

MESSAGE 1 — WHO YOU HELP

One sentence. Specific. No jargon.e.g. "I work with service-based founders who are ready to stop undercharging."

MESSAGE 2 — THE PROBLEM YOU SOLVE

Describe the pain point in their language, not yours.e.g. "Most founders are busy — but busy doing the wrong things. I help fix that."

MESSAGE 3 — YOUR RESULT / OUTCOME

The specific transformation. Make it tangible.e.g. "Within 90 days, you will have a clear strategy, a full pipeline, and clients who pay premium."

MESSAGE 4 — WHY YOU / YOUR PROOF

What makes you credible. Not a list of credentials — a story.e.g. "I built Načisto, consulted businesses across 4 markets, and come from 6 years in motorsport. I know what precision looks like."

MESSAGE 5 — YOUR CALL TO ACTION

What is the one thing you want them to do next?e.g. "Book a 90-minute Strategic Intensive at assetdistrict.com"
